

ODACS RULES

Senior High, LEVEL III, GRADES 9-12

AREA THREE: SPEECH

GENERAL RULES

1. All material should be in good taste and of high quality. Entries will not be restricted to sacred themes. However, entries which reflect anti-Biblical themes, content, and/or word usage (including profanity or suggestive language) or which contain sensualism, humanism, or worldliness (including offensive performance) will be disqualified.
2. No student or group will perform the same selection in two consecutive years. In addition, the same selection is not to be used by multiple groups from the same school in the same year.
3. Singing of a song during a speech is to be limited to no more than one verse of one song or no more than 1.5 minutes of the speech. In addition, no instrument may be used to accompany the individual or group during the speech performance.
4. All selections are to be memorized (no scripts permitted), excluding the areas of Debate, Original Persuasive Oratory, and Extemporaneous Speaking.
5. Each student must submit three typewritten copies of his selection to the judges prior to his performance.
6. A lectern may be used in the categories of Debate and Extemporaneous Speaking only. ODACS Variation: A lectern may be used for Debate only. Extemporaneous Speaking contestants will be permitted to use a lectern at the AACS national competition but not for ODACS competition.
7. The following rules apply to Categories 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 8.
 - a) Body movements should be primarily, but not limited to, movement above the waist.
 - b) No hand props or costume pieces will be permitted.
 - c) All selections will be taken from published works.
 - d) In addition to General Rule #9, the contestant may reintroduce himself, the selection, and author as well as provide the audience with necessary background information in order to set the mood for the piece. He may also give transitional narrative for clarity within the piece. These additions combined are not to exceed one minute and are included in the time limit. Transitional material must be included in the script provided for the judges.
8. The time limit for all individual categories (Categories 1-8) is 5 to 10 minutes. With the exception of Debate, the time limit for all group categories (Categories 9-11) is 5-13 minutes.
9. The judge will confirm the speaker, selection, and author. The judge will then announce to the individual or group, "You may begin." Timing and adjudication will then begin immediately.
10. Only one round of competition will be conducted unless an additional round is required by the tie-breaking procedure.
11. The guidelines used by the competition office in determining disqualifications and penalties for violations are in the General Information, page 7. There will be a point deduction for stopping and starting again.
12. Recording is absolutely prohibited except for the recording of a single entry by representatives of the participant's school for personal use. The recording of all or portions of the performance of more than one entry in any event is prohibited. In any case, the head judge may prohibit recording. No recording made by anyone other than competition officials may be considered for adjudication purposes.
13. ODACS Clarification: It is sometimes difficult to determine the category into which a speech fits best. Sometimes questions involve Dramatic Interpretation and Declamation, and sometimes they involve Dramatic Interpretation and Religious Reading. Competitors are urged to select speeches that clearly fit the categories. Some descriptive information is offered in appendix on page 145.

Category 10: Readers' Theatre

(Time Limit: 5-13 minutes)

Definition: The oral presentation of dramatic, poetic, or prose material by a group focused on the audience, utilizing some or all of the following techniques: effective use of distinct and separate characters, out of scene, characterization, group speaking, and group movement. The presentation may include these types: cameo (face only movement), upper body, or whole body movement. Characters are not to interact with each other as they do in Acting. (Refer to Distinctions Between Readers' Theatre and Choric Speaking, page 57.)

1. Group size consists of 3 to 6 individuals.
2. Readers may make use of small hand props and costume accessories (such as an umbrella, shawl, glove, hat, glasses, etc.). In a quality performance, small props may be used appropriately to enhance the performance and props are not used excessively so that they distract from the performance. No makeup, lighting, full costumes, or furniture other than a table, chairs, and stools are allowed. Platforms or prop boxes are permitted.
3. All members dressed in black (or any color) or in the same style shall not be considered to be wearing costumes.
4. The presentation will be judged on originality of arrangement and the skillful use of the techniques to move the audience with the chosen material. Memorization is required. The presentation may not be directed.
5. Any form of literature, poetry or prose, adapted to the Readers' Theatre form will be appropriate for this contest. All literature must meet acceptable guidelines.
