

Old Dominion Association of Church Schools

Important Memo:

Will entries prepared for the 2020 AACS National Competition be eligible to be entered in the 2021 AACS National Competition?

For states that canceled their 2020 state competition due to COVID-19, students may use entries prepared during the 2019-2020 school year in the 2021 AACS National Competition.

However, students must use the 2021 material to prepare to compete in the following AACS Competition categories: Bible Memory, Bible Quizzing, Debate, Old Testament Bible Knowledge, and New Testament Bible Knowledge.

Will entries prepared for the 2020 ODACS Competition be eligible to be entered in the 2021 ODACS Competition?

For schools whose 2020 regional competition was held, students must prepare new entries for the 2021 ODACS Regional and State Competitions. This rule applies to the following regional competitions: North Region Elementary, East Region Group Music, Mountain Region.

For schools whose 2020 regional competition was canceled due to COVID-19, students may use entries prepared during the 2019-2020 school year in the 2021 ODACS Regional and State Competitions. This rule applies to the following regional competitions: Central Region, all East Region events except group music, North Region Level II and Level III.

However, students must use the 2021 material to prepare to compete in the following ODACS Competition categories: Bible Memory, Bible Quizzing, Bible Sword Drill, Debate, Old Testament Bible Knowledge, and New Testament Bible Knowledge.