

Why Your School Should Join the Old Dominion Association of Church Schools

Reason #1 - Religious Liberty

The freedom to proclaim God's eternal truth in the classroom is a fundamental purpose for the existence of Christian schools. For more than 170 years of American history, such freedom was taken for granted and exercised routinely. Now, however, the only way to preserve that freedom is by operating Christian schools. Central to the purpose of ODACS is the task of maintaining the Christian school's freedom to operate and to teach all subjects in the context of a Biblical world view. We cannot take this liberty for granted! Both ODACS and AACS work diligently to represent member schools in Richmond and in Washington. Members receive regular updates on current issues and legislation, and they also have the opportunity to participate in the process through efforts organized by the association. Now more than ever, churches and Christian schools need to unite in the cause of preserving our wonderful Christian heritage!

If you're an independent Baptist church operating a Christian school in Virginia, you can't afford not to be a member of ODACS!
